

»Would you tell us what home means to you?«

We asked others as well as ourselves this simple question many times throughout the past three years of our project. All you will experience in the framework of our presentation refers to this process, and the answers we received. We are a collective of 12 participating artists of different musical genres and disciplines working together with four new music organizations from Austria, Hungary, Serbia, and Spain.

HoME - PERFORMANCE

»A Moment to Land« is a collaborative exploration of the concept of home. No matter who we are, 'home' will mean something different to all of us. We invite you to an interdisciplinary and cross-cultural evening of new compositions, movement, sounds and stories in our shared living room.
